Original Poetry.

THE DYING.

BY MISS LOUISE E. VICKROY.

I am willing and ready from earth to go,
But at the thought of parting, the tears will flow;
I weep; but it is not with coward fear,
At the passing from this to another sphere;
It is not the dying hour I dread,
And 'tis blessed to be of the "early dead;"
It is sweet to go from a world of strife.
And I have no fears for the Future Life:

But I grieve to think of the first dark day,
In the household band, when I pass away;
Of the desolate air in the dreary room,
Where the darkness is horror, the sunlight is gloom;
Of the whispered words; of the stealing tread
Round the rigid form, when the breath has fled;
When the kindest voice to the mourner's ear
Has lost the power to soothe or cheer.

'Tis a dreary thought, that the winter snow
Will drift o'er the spot where I slumber low;
But O, I think, when the summer hours
Shall come again, with the buds and flowers,
All the music and fragrance I loved so well,
And the soft winds sighing down the dell,
Where the beautiful river murmurs by,
Reflecting the blue of the glowing sky;

That my sisters will sit by the water's side,
And sadly talk of the one that died;
That my brothers will steal from their noisy play,
To weep by my grave, at the close of day;
And my parents will look on the vacant chair,
And miss me most at the hour of prayer;
While one who is now on a far off shore,
Will return to miss me forevermore.

Then tell him to come to the dark blue stream.
Where together we dreamed such a beautiful dream.
To listen again to the wood-bird's lay,
While he watches the waves as they dance away;
And to linger till after the sun has set,
Till the daylight and darkness have softly met;
Then when earth seems a tinge of the heavens to wear,
To think that my love will be lingering there.

I know that ere long, in the world above,
I shall meet again with the friends I love;
But it seems like a fearful thing to go,
And leave on each bosom a weight of woe:
I grieve that a gloom for a while must fall
On the hearts of my loved ones—I grieve for all;
But these tears are for him that is loved the best,
The dearer, e'en dearer than all the rest.

How He Won Her.

BY D. HUDSON.

It was the year 18—, in the spring of the year, and in the lovely month of May, that the circumstance occurred which I am about to relate.

A young lady of eccentric character, but of rare mental endowments, and extraordinary personal attractions, had five suitors, equally assiduous in their attentions. Unable to decide upon which she should bestow her hand, she gave them notice to call upon her on a certain day and each state his claims in the presence of the others.

Four of them were confident of success but the fifth had a downcast look, and sighed when he gazed on the object of his devotion.

"Gentlemen," said she, "you have honored me with proposals of marriage, I have as yet, neither refused nor accepted any of you; state your claims to my hand, that I may know upon what grounds I may be justified in bestowing it."

Mr. A. answered as follows:

"If you marry me, you shall live in a splendid house, have carriages and servants at your command, and enjoy all the luxuries of life. I am independently rich."

B. spoke next:

"My rival has said, very true, that he is rich, but I am of noble descent, my forefathers were descendants from the first noblemen of the land. I am of a family with whom an alliance would be considered an honor to the wealthiest heiress of the land."

C. stated his clams;

"I am a politician, and have now a reputation that older persons have envied. Next year I shall run for Congress, and have no doubt of success; by marrying me your name will be handed down to posterity.

D. twisted his moustache with the air of an exquisite, and said:

"Angelic creature, pon my word, I think you have already made up your mind in my favor. I am the most fashionable dressed person in town. I am the best judge of operas. You see what a perfect gentleman I am."

When it came E's turn to speak, all eyes were turned towards him. Poor fellow, he was dreadfully embarrased.

"Well," said the lady, "what say you Mr. E."

"Alas!" was the reply, "I yield to these gentlemen, they have the advantage over me in every respect," and he took his hat to leave.

"Stop," said the lady, "make your statements, no matter how humble may be your claim."

"I am poor."

"Go on!"

"I am not of a noble family."

"Go on, sir,"

"I am unknown to the people of the world."

"No matter, proceed!"

"I work for a livelihood, and it is hardly possible that I can make you happy, for I can afford none of the inducements held out by my rivals."

"I am to judge of that sir, what next?"

"Nothing, only I love you, and take a newspaper."

At this Messrs. A. B. C. and D. burst into a loud laugh, and exclaiming in one voice, "So do we, I love you to distraction. I take four newspapers."

"Well," said the lady, "in one month you shall have an answer. You may all withdraw."

At the end of the month, the five suitors again appeared. Turning to each one in succession, the lady answered:

"Riches are not productive of happiness, boasted nobility of blood is the poorest of all recommendations, fame is fleeting, and he that has only the garb of a gentleman, is to be pitied. I have found out the names of the papers to which you all subscribe, and have ascertained that none of you who have boasted of wealth, nobility, fame and fashion, have paid for them; now gentlemen that is a dishonest act, and in my humble opinion, a dishonest man is not a suitable person for woman to confide in. Now Mr. E., you take one newspaper, and I have ascertained that you have likewise paid for it. Likewise you are all you pretend to be, you are not cheating the publisher in order to make a show in the world, as well considered. Mr. E., I give you my hand and fortune."

Why should a Man Swear?

I can conceive of no reason why he should, but of ten reasons why he should not:

1. It is mean A man of high moral standing would almost as soon steel a sheep as swear.

2. It is vulgar. Altogether too mean for a decent man.

3. It is cowardly. Implying a fear either of not being believed or obeyed.

4. It is ungentlemanly. A gentleman, according to Webster, is a genteel man, well bred—refined. Such an one will no more swear than go into the street and throw mad with a clod-hopper.

5. It is indecent. Offensive to delicacy, and extremely unfit for human ears.

6. It is foolish. "Want of decency is want of sense."—Pope.

7. It is abusive. To the mind that conceives the oath, to the tongue which utters it, and to the person at whom it is aimed

8. It is venomous; showing a man's heart to be a nest of vipers, and every time he swears, one of them sticks out his head.

9. It is contemptible; forfeiting the respect of the wise and good.

10. It is wicked; violating the divine law, and provoking the displeasure of Him who will not hold him guiltless that takes his name in vain.

BRAINS.—An American sloop-of-war had put into an English port, and the first lieutenant went ashore to reconnoiter. In the course of his travels, he entered a tavern where a number of British officers were carousing. They at once recognized the lieutenant's nationality by his dress, and resolved to amuse themselves by bullying him.

'Well, comrade,' says one, 'you belong to the United States, I see."

'Right,' was the answer.

'Now, what would you do to a man who should say that your navy did not contain an officer fit for a bumboat?' continued the Englishman.

'I would blow his brains out!' returned our lieutenant, with great coolness.

There was silence among her majesty's servants for a moment; but finally one of them, more muddled than the rest, managed to stammer out:

'W—well, Yank, I say it!"

The American walked to his side, and replied, calmly:

'It is lucky for you, shipmate, that you have no brains to blow out!'

Struck by the dignity of the answer, the offender at once apologized, and our hero was invited to join the mess.

A CUTE YANKEE.—Early one morning the scholars of one of our district schools were agreeably surprised to find upon the outside door, "No Scule," and the most of them made preparations to enjoy the holiday, not dreaming but that it was genuine order.

It appeared, however, that a roguish youth, a lover of mischief more than his books, had written in large letters the joyful news. "No Scule" was the notice posted up—the idea we understand, but the spelling was bad. The afternoon brought all together, and in the stern visage of the master enough was seen to convince us that all was not right, and now came the tug of war.

He soon ordered the boys to appear before his presence, and oneby one, criticised our spelling, as far as the word school was concerned. They stood the test until the hero, with comic phiz, made his appearance, who, with coonfidence, distinctly said—

The master took him by the colar, and with a joyful expression at the success of the ruse, laid on the birch right merrily.

Spicy Correspondence.

A TRUE WIFE.

We are assured by a friend who is personally cognizant of what he states, that the following piquant correspondence is genuine. A gentleman whose business calls him a good deal from home, is accustomed to give the custody of his correspondence to his wife, an intelligent lady, who, in obedience to instructions, opens all letters that come in her husband's absence: answers such of them as she can, like a confidential clerk, and forwards the rest to her liege lord, at such places as he may have designated at his departure.—During a recent abscence of her husband the lady received a letter, of which the following, (omitting names, dates and places,) is a true copy:—

MY DEAR SIR:—I saw a fine picture of you yesterday, and fell in love with it, as I did with the original in W—— last winter, when I saw you more than an hour, though I suppose you did not see me among so many. I fear you will think me forward in thus addressing you, but I trust you are as noble and unsuspecting as you are handsome and brilliant. Perhaps you would like to know something about me—your ardent admirer! Well, I am not very good at description, but I will say I am not married—(though you are, I am told.) My friends tell me I have not a pretty face, but only a good figure. I am rather petite, have black eyes, black hair, and a dark complexion—that is I am what is called a "brunette." I am stopping for a few weeks with my brother-in-law and sister in this town, and I dearly wish you would meet me there before I return to W——. At any rate do not fail to write me at least a few words to tell me whether I shall ever see you again, and know you more intimately. Forgive my boldness and believe me

Your friend——

To this letter the wife, who, by the bye, has not the least knowledge of the person to whom she was writing, made the following answer:

Madmoiselle—Your letter of the—— inst., addressed to Mr.——, was duly received. Mr.——, who is my husband, directed me, when he left home a few days ago, to open all his letters, and to answer any of them that I conveniently could. As you seem to be rather impatient, I will answer your letter myself. I do not think your description of yourself will please Mr.——. I happen to know that he likes black eyes, and hates brunettes most decidedly. It is quite true (as you seem to suppose) that he judges of women as he does of horses; but I do not think your inventory of your "points" is complete enough to be satisfactory to him. You omit to mention your hight, weight, wind, speed, and (here the word is illegible.) Taking your charms at your own estimate, I doubt whether they will prove sufficiently attractive to draw him so far as B.—— merely for the satisfaction of comparing them with the schedule.

You say you trust my husband is "unsuspecting." I think that is his nature, but yet he is used to drawing inferences, which are sometimes as unkind as suspicious. You say you are unmarried. My advice to you is to marry somebody, as soon as possible. In most cases, I would not recommend haste; but in yours, I am convinced there is truth in the proverb which speaks of the danger of delay.—Should you be so fortunate as to get a husband (which may God mercifully grant!) my opinion is that you will consider any woman, who should write him such a letter as this of yours, impertinent, and perhaps, immodest.

I will deliver your note to M.—— when he returns, and also a copy of my reply which I am sure he will approve. I am, with as much respect as you permit.

MRS——.

This was the end of the correspondence. Moral—Young ladies who write affectionate letters to married men should be careful that the precious missives do not fall into the hands of their spouses, as the amorous writers may chance to get "more miffs than kisses.—Post.

☞ The loveliest valley has a muddy swamp, and the noblest mountains a piercing blast and the prettiest face some ugly features. The fairest complexion is subject to freckles; the handsomest girl is apt to be proud; the most sentimental lady loves cold pork; and the gayest mother lets her children go ragged. The kindest wife will sometimes overlook an absent shirt button; and the best husband forgets to kiss his wife every time he strays outside of the gate; and the best dispositioned children in the world get angry and squall; and the smartest scholar miss a lesson; and the wittiest wit says something stupid; and the wisest essayest write some nonsense, and Woodworth snores and stars will fall, and the moon suffer eclipse—and men won't be angels, nor earth Heaven.

MANNERS CONTAGIOUS.—It is certain that either wise bearing, or ignorant carriage, is caught as men take diseases one of another; therefore, let men take heed of their company.—Shakespeare

THE ORPHAN GIRL.

I have no mother!—for she died
When I was very young;
But her memory still around my heart,
Like morning mist has hung.

They tell me of an angel form
That watched me while I slept,
And of a soft and gentle hand
That wiped the tears I wept.

And that same hand that held my own
When I began to walk
And the joy that sparkled in her eyes
When first I tried to talk—

For they say the mother's heart is pleased
When infant charms extend—
I wonder if she thinks of me,
In that bright, happy land:

For I know she is in heaven now—
That holy place of rest—
For she was always good to me,
And the good alone are blest.

I remember, too, when I was ill,
She kissed my burning brow;
And the tear that fell upon my cheek
I think I feel it now.

And I have still some little books
She learned me how to spell;
And the chiding, or the kiss she gave,
I still remember well.

And then she used to kneel with me,
And teach me how to pray,
And raise my little hands to heaven,
And tell me what to say

O mother! mother! in my heart
Thy image still shall be
And I will hope in heaven at last
That I may meet with thee.

The Great Strasburg Clock.

Henry C. Wright, in a letter to the Boston Liberator, thus describes the great clock in Strasburg Cathedral:—I am now sitting in a chair facing the gigantic clock, from the bottom to the top not less than 100 feet, and about 30 feet wide, and 15 deep. Around me are many strangers, waiting to see the working of this clock as it strikes the hour of noon. The clock is struck in this way: The dial is some twenty feet from the floor, on each side of which is a cherub, or a little boy, with a mallet, and over the dial is a small bell. The cherub on the left strikes the first quarter, and that on the right the second quarter. Fifty feet over the dial, in a large niche, is a huge figure of Time, a bell in his left and a scythe in his right hand. In front stands a figure of a young man with a mallet, who strikes the third quarter, on the hand of Time, and turns and glides, with a slow step, round behind Time.—Then comes out an old man, with a mallet, and places himself in front of him. As the hour of twelve comes, the old man raises his mallet, and deliberately strikes twelve times on the bell, that echoes through the building, and is heard all around the region of the church. The old man glides slowly behind Father Time, and the young man comes on ready to perform his part, as the time comes around again. Soon as the old man has struck twelve and disappeared, another set of machinery is put in motion, some twenty feet higher still. It is thus: There is a high cross with the image of Christ on it. The instant twelve has struck, one of the Apostles walks out from behind, comes in front, turns, facing the cross, bows, and walks on around to his place. As he does so, another, comes out in front, turns, bows, and passes on. As the last appears, an enormous cock, perched on the pinnacle of the clock, slowly flaps its wings, and stretches forth its neck and crows three times, so loud as to be heard outside of the church to some distance, and so naturally as to be be mistakened for a real cock. Then all is silent as death. No wonder this clock is the admiration of Europe. It was made in 1571, and has performed these mechanical wonders ever since, except about fifty years, when it stood out of repair.

☞ Some crusty old fellew, who got "awfully cheated," must have written the following. Such "ladies" are scarce here, "The model lady puts her children out to nurse, and tends lap-dogs; lies in bed until noon; wears paper soled shoes; pinches her waist; gives the piano fits; forgets to pay her milliner; cuts her poor relations; goes to church when she has a new bonnet; turns the cold shoulder to her husband, and flirts with his friends; never saw a thimble; don't know a darning needle from a crow-bar; wonders where puddings grow; eats ham and eggs in private, and dines on a pigeon's leg in public; runs mad after the last new fashion; doats on Byron; adores any man who grins behind a moustache; and when asked the age of her youngest child, replies, "Don't know indeed; ask Betty!"

NOT BAD.—A story is told of a doctor in the goodly town of B——, not a hundred miles from Vermont. The doctor kept missing his wood, and kept watch. As was expected, it proved to be the work of a near neighbor, who soon appeared and carefully culling out all dry wook, started off with an armful. The doctor hastily gathered up an armful of green wood, and followed, tugging as fast as he could, and just as the man threw down his armful the doctor did the same, exclaiming:

"There, you must burn green wood a part of the time—I have too," and departed, leaving the thief to his own reflections.

Lessons for those who like them.

Be not always speaking of yourself; do not awkward in manner; be not forward; boast not; angle not for praise; do not equivocate; tell no lies, not even those called innocent; listen when spoken to; be polite at table; attend to the ladies; dread the character of an ill-bred man; be remarkable for cleanliness of person; attend to cleanliness of dress; study elegance or expression; avoid odd sayings and vulgarisms; use polished language; be choice in your compliments; acquire a knowledge of the world; praise delicacy; study the foibles of mankind; command your temper and countenance; never acknowledge an enemy, or see affront if you can help it; avoid wrangling, medling and tittle-tattle; judge not of mankind harshly; trust not implicitly to any; beware of proffered friendship; doubt him who swears to the truth of the thing; be choice in your company; adopt no man's vices; avoid noisy laughter; refuse invitations politely; dare to be singular in the right cause, and be not ashamed to refuse; strive to write well and grammatically; affect not to rake; be choice in your amusements; never appear to be in a hurry; neglect not an old acquaintance; avoid all kinds of vanity; make no one in company feel his inferiority; be not witty at the expense of another; be sparing of railery; never whisper in company; look not over one when writing or reading; hum no tunes in company, nor be in any way noisy; eat not too fast nor too slow; spit not on the floor or carpet; hold no indelicate discourse; avoid odd habits; lose no time in transacting business; indulge not in laziness; be not frivolous; study dignity and pleasing manners; be not envious; show no nastiness in temper; talk not long at a time; tell no stories; avoid hackneyed expressions; make no digressions; hold no one by the button when talking; forestall not a slow speaker; say not all you think; adapt your conversation to the company; give not your advice unasked; renew no disagreeable matters; praise not another at the expense of the present company; avoid rude expressions; avoid mystery and long apoligoes; look people in the face when speaking; swear not; talk not scandal; talk not of private concerns; a few jokes will bear repeating; take the peace-maker's part in debating; be not clamorous in dispute, but exercise good humor; learn the character of the company before you say much; suppose not yourself laughed at; interrupt no man's story; ask not abrupt questions; reflect on no order of people; display not your learning on all occasions; avoid debt.

NO TRUST TO GOVERNORS.—We clip the following from the legislative correspondence of the Leavenworth Times:

But here I must tell you an anecdote which the Governor relishes as much as you will: "His Excellency" went into a barber's shop at Lecompton to get shaved. The barber is a black man, and belongs to Judge Ellmore, for ours, as Buchanan says, is a slave soil.

As soon as seated, the following dialogue occurred:

Gov. M. "I'll shave by the month."

Barber. "Don't know, massa, about dat."

Gov. "Why not, Tom?"

Barber. "Case, massa, you Gubnuurs stay mighty short time in Kansas. Can't trust you to four weeks. Too long a time for people of your color."

Of course Gov. Medary paid up. There was no help for it. Mr. Darkey had the argument with him.

☞ A very simple and interesting electrical experiment may be made with a sheet of brown paper, illustrating, in a remarkable manner, how the most astonishing effects may be produced by the simplest means. Take a sheet of coarse brown paper, and after holding it before the fire until it is perfectly dry, fold it up into a long strip of about two inches wide. The magnet is now complete. To exhibit its attractive power, cut some strips of writing paper about three inches long, and about as wide as one of these lines; place them upon the table, three or four together. Now, take the magnet, and draw it briskly under the arm two or three times, its electromagnetism is instantly developed, and becomes apparent when held over the small stripes of writing paper, for they fly up towards the paper magnet, veritably "by the wings of lightning."

☞ "Job Printing—well now who would have thought it," said Mrs. Partington, taking off her spectacles, wiping them and again placing them in proper position. "I always thought Job had other things to attend to besides printing. If the Bible tells the truth it must have been hard work for him to learn the trade. Strange things, however, happen now a days, but I never should have thought that Job was still living and printing a newspaper." The old lady who had been looking at the sign of our Job Office, and had spoken rather loud, was at this moment spoken to by Ike. After a few words with him she moved quietly away, remarking—"How a body can be mistaken these days."

☞ Where parties are unknown to us, our rule for advertising is to require payment in advance, or a guarantee from known persons. It is therefore useless for all such to send us advertisements offering to pay at the end of three or six months. Where advertisements are accompanied with the money, whether one, five or ten dollars, we will give the advertiser the full benefit of cash rates.

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO.,
Advertising Agents, 119 Nassau street, New York, and 10 State street, Boston, are the Agents for the Altoona Tribune, and the most influential and largest circulating Newspapers in the United States and the Canadas. They are authorized to contract for us at our lowest rates.

THE WAVERLY NOVELS.—The well-known firm of T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, are now engaged in publishing a remarkably cheap edition of these unapproachable works of fiction. The first, "Ivanhoe," appeared on Saturday week; the next, "Guy Mannering," was issued last Saturday, "Rob Roy" will appear next, and so on, one novel will be published regularly on each and every coming Saturday, until the whole number of volumes—twenty-six—is completed. The low price fixed by the publishers for them are only 25 cents a volume, or the whole twenty-six volumes for five dollars. A complete set will be forwarded, free of postage, by mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on receiving a remittance of five dollars for the twenty-six volumes; or a remittance of three dollars will pay for the first twelve volumes; or a remittance of one dollar will pay for the first four volumes. The novels will be neatly printed, and each volume will contain about 125 pages, printed on fine white paper, and neatly bound with paper cover. The revised uniform Edinburgh edition, from which this is reprinted, comprises forty-eight volumes, the cost of which is seventy-two dollars: and this edition will contain every word of the Edinburgh edition. We commend the determination of this enterprising Philadelphia firm, to furnish the works of an author like Walter Scott, at a price so reasonable, that all persons whatever may possess a full set, and direct the especial attention of our readers to the fact, and would advise them all to make a remittance of Five Dollars at once, per first mail, to the publishers, for the entire set, who will send them complete to any one, free of postage, on receipt of that sum.

AWARD OF DAMAGES.—The heirs of the late Dr. Oyicr, of West Whiteland, Chester county, who was killed on the 26th of November, 1857, by a train of cars on the Pennsylvania Railroad coming in collision with his carriage, at the Three Tons crossing, have instituted legal proceedings against the Railroad Company. The Arbitrators met at the Court House in West Chester, a short time since, to hear the case. Numerous witnesses on both sides were examined, and counsel were heard. The heirs, we believe, claimed $20,000 damage, but the arbitrators rendered an award of $15,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The annual election in that State took place March 8th. Mr. Goodwin, the Republican candidate for Governor, was elected by about 8,500 majority over the Democratic nominee. The three Congressmen, Messrs. Marston, Tappan and Edwards, are all Republicans. The Republicans have also chosen 9 out of the 12 Senators, and secured a majority of 72 in the House. The Republican majority for Governor last year was 4,732.

BRIDGE SWEPT AWAY.—During the storm which raged on Friday evening and Saturday last, five spans of the bridge across the Susquehanna, at Clark's Ferry, belonging to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was blown down and swept away. But three spans of the bridge were left standing. A large number of rafts on the river at the time were blown from their moorings, and striking against the piers of the bridges below were dashed to pieces.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for April is on our table. It contains a beautiful frontispiece entitled, the "Return," connected with which there is a readable story. The colored fashion-plate entitled "April Fool," is very handsome. We need not extol the merits of this Book.—Every child in the country has heard Godey and his Book spoken of in terms of praise. Price $3 per annum. We will furnish it for $2,00.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention met at Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week, to nominate candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General. There was a full representation of delegates. Richardson L. Wright, of Philadelphia, was nominated for Auditor General, and John Rowe, of Franklin, the present incumbent, nominated for Surveyor General. After the nominations had been made there was quite a spirited "set to" between the Lecompton and Anti-Locompton wings of the party, but the former being in the majority had things all their own way, notwithstanding the kicking of the latter. The convention refused, by a decided vote, to approve of the official course of Gov. Packer. This shabby treatment of the Governor, by the Lecomptonites, did not tend very much toward harmonizing the party, and from the accounts published in the Harrisburg papers, we are inclined to think the Convention broke up in a row. It is rumored that Mr. Rowe, the candidate for Surveyor General, intends to decline the nomination of this Convention and await the action of the Convention called by Forney and others, which is to assemble at Harrisbuig on the 12th of April. There is now a "bad break" in the party, and it remains to be seen whether the second convention will mend the matter.

NEW POST MASTER GENERAL.—The President appointed Hon. Joseph Holt, Postmaster General, in the place of Hon. Aaron Vai Brown, dec'd. Mr. Holt was Commissioner of Patents at the time of his elevation to the Cabinet. He is said to be a most excellent man.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ Coming—flitting time. We're in the ring.

☞ Will soon be in rafting condition—our streets.

☞ Increasing—the number of foundations for new buildings in this place.

☞ Every rose has its thorn; every woman has pins and needles about her.

☞ Much admired—the piece of furniture on exhibition at the Post Office.

☞ Mexico had seven Presidents in the month of January. How many since we can not tell.

☞ The Catholics of Fort Wayne, Indiana, are about to commence the erection of a cathedral which will cost $50,000.

☞ A new counterfeit on the Easton Bank is out. It is well executed and will deceive unless closely scrutinized.

☞ Cost of a Mutiny.—The Sepoy outbreak has cost the British Government £21,000,000, or over one hundred million dollars.

☞ A precocious youngster, named O'Donnell, aged nineteen years, is on trial in St. Louis for being married to three wives at one time.

☞ The jewelry store of J. W. Dutcher, in Huntingdon, was entered on Saturday night week and robbed of all the jewelry and some fifteen watches which had been left for repair.

☞ A New Move.—At a Democratic meeting in Summer County, Tennessee, held recently, resolutions were passed against voting for candidates for office who belonged to any secret order, including that of Odd Fellows!

☞ Following out the Idea.—Rev. Thomas Whittemore tells a story of his having attended church recently to hear an eminent divine, and the subject of the morning's discourse was, "Ye are the children of the devil." He attended the same church in the afternoon, when the text was, "Children, obey your parents."

☞ Arctic Weather.—The Pittsfield (Mass.) Sun says they have had ninety-nine days of uninterrupted good sleighing in Berkshire county this winter. There has been three months of continual sleighing at Sunbury, Vt. A letter from Manchester, N. H., written on the 9th instant, says that there have been up to that date, one hundred and six days of constant sleighing.

☞ A. B. married C. D.'s sister—his wife died. A. B. then married C. D.'s daughter—she died. C. D.'s wife died. C. D. married E. F. and died. A. B. then married C. D.'s widow, and had children by each wife. What relationship existed between all the children of A. B? A case exactly of this kind occurred in Bedford county.

☞ The Gouldy Tragedy.—The unfortunate victims, who were so seriously injured by the savage attacks of the young maniac, Frank Gouldy, have entirely recovered with the exception of the father, who is now as well as he ever will be. His face is still under partial paralysis, but he is able to walk about with the aid of crutches. Mrs. Gouldy, who was enciente at the time of the tragedy, gave birth to a daughter about a month since.

A RESURRECTIONIST RECEIVING 100 LASHES.—At Albany, New York, on Saturday evening, March 5th, two men, named Johnson and Bellew, went (upon the offer of $15 from a physician) to steal a corpse from one of the graveyards on the hill. After digging down to the coffin, Bellew raised the lid, took out the dead body, and was just in the act of passing the same to Johnson, when the grave caved in upon him, when he shouted for help, which brought a number of persons to the spot. The moment the disaster occurred, Johnston made good his escape, and fled towards Schenectady. Bellew having been freed from death, was offered a choice of punishment—an arrest for felony, or a hundred lashes on the bare back with a raw hide. Bellew preferred the latter. The raw hide was procured, and Bellew treated to the hundred lashes by a young man named Van Keuren. He submitted to the infliction like a martyr, without making any outcry whatever. Having received the hundred lashes, he was allowed to depart. He also put towards Schenectady.

CLOSE VOTING.—From the returns of the New Hampshire election, reported in the Concord Statesman, we find that in thirty-four instances the Republican and Democratic candidates had exactly the number of votes cast at the election in 1858, by the same party. In forty instances the party vote was within one of that cast the previous year. In twenty-nine cases it was within two; in twenty-two cases within three; in twenty-seven cases within four; twenty-five cases within five; twenty-six cases within six; fourteen instances within seven; seventeen cases within eight, and eleven cases within nine votes of the last election—making 245 instances in all where there was not ten votes difference between the two years.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, March 22, 1859.

At the time I write this, the Governor has not yet signed the Supplement to the Germantown Passenger Railway—the great Rail Road bill of the session—and to-day it is rumored that he will veto the bill, even with the prospect of having it passed over his head by a two-third vote. In doing so he will be influenced by two considerations, the first of which is a resolution passed by the city Councils asking him to sign no charter for a passenger railway which takes all power out of the hands of the Council, in placing restrictions upon them. The second is a proposition made by one Joseph Harrison, who offers to pay to the city of Philadelphia, $1,000 a mile annually for the right of way on Fourth and Eighth streets. The Germantown men meet these arguments by saying that the Council being more corrupt than the Legislature itself, want a big "stake," and that Harrison, being the principal stock holder in the Fifth and Sixth Street line, with which the new line would materially interfere, could well afford to pay that sum for a monopoly of four streets, and not build on Fourth and Eighth at all. By this you will learn that the great fight, involving a legislative gift of a couple of hundred thousand dollars, is not yet settled satisfactorily to all parties.

The following supplement to the Mechanics' Lien Laws, which has passed the House, and will pass the Senate, is of considerable importance to people residing in new places where new buildings are daily going up:—

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That when any master workman or contractor shall, on demand refuse to pay any journeyman or laborer employed in erecting or constructing, repairing or extending any building or property, belonging or adjacent thereunto, the wages due to him for such labor, it shall be the duty of such journeyman or laborer, to give notice in writing to the owner or owners of such building, of such refusal, and of the amount due to him, and so demanded; and the owner or owners of such building shall thereupon be authorized to retain the amount so due, and claimed by any such journeyman or laborer, out of the amount owing by him or them, to such master workman or contractor, giving him written notice of such claim and demand; and if the same be not paid or settled by said master workman or contractor, such owner or owners shall retain the amount claimed by said journeyman or laborer, until a suit for the recovery of the same shall have been adjudicated by the proper authority; and such journeyman or laborer, for the same judgment, having first been obtained, judgment for the same as aforesaid, such owner or owners shall be entitled to an allowance thereof, in the settlement of accounts between him and such master workman or contractor as so much paid on account: Provided, That the owner or owners of any building or buildings, against which claim shall be made, shall not be required to pay the same until such journeyman or laborer shall have obtained final judgment against such contractor or contractors, and all costs shall be paid by such contractor or contractors; but if such contractor or contractors are unable to pay the costs, then, and in that case, the costs to which the owner or owners may have been subjected, shall be deducted from the moneys coming to such journeyman, laborer or claimant, under the provisions of this act. And it is further provided, That such claimant or claimants shall bring suit against such contractor or contractors, within one month after giving such notice; and if no suit is brought within said time, then the notice is to have no effect whatever.

Provided That nothing herein contained shall be so construed, as to change the mode of payment fixed upon by agreement or otherwise, between such owner and master-workman or contractor.

The Democratic Convention of last week was a unique affair in its way. It was a great conglomeration of office-holders under the Federal Government, and others interested in Governmental contracts, who had things pretty much their own way, and, imbued with a deep sense of gratitude, they did not fail to "praise the bridge which carries them safe over." Hence, Buchanan was lauded, but a resolution endorsing the administration of Gov. Packer was voted down. This insures the defeat of the ticket nominated by at least 50,000 majority. But this is not all. The friends of Packer, who claim to be the Democratic party of the State, have already issued a call for a mass convention to be held in this place on the 12th of April.—This meeting will be largely attended, the Cincinnati platform will be adopted, and a new ticket will be placed in the field. There will be an ample opportunity afforded by this measure at the next election to show the friends of Buchanan their real strength in Pennsylvania.

A resolution to adjourn on the 5th of April, has passed the House, but has not yet gone through the Senate. It is the opinion of all that this date is at least ten days ahead of time. To-day the file of the House shows 1,000 bills, and many of them have yet to be acted upon. The Senate committee has not yet reported the Appropriation bill, to which I understand such amendments have been made as to justify the belief that it will take some days to debate upon it.

In the House last night the bill allowing magistrates, with a jury of six to try certain petty offenses came up in order, and was debated at length, and finally referred to a select Committee, with instructions to report during the week. The opposition urged against the bill, is that the office being one which does not remunerate, is filled in many places by incompetent men.—This is no doubt true, but the passage of this very law would correct the evil, for the fees of the office would be increased, and competent men would agree to become magistrates. I am told that the legal fraternity in the House oppose the bill.

To-day Senator Creswell presented the petition of 104 citizens of Middle Woodberry township, Bedford county, praying to have said township annexed to Blair county.

The following bills were passed in the Senate to-day on third reading:—

An act to incorporate the Penn Industrial Reform School, in Philadelphia.

An act equalizing taxation on corporations.

An act incorporating the Pittsburgh and East Liberty Passenger Railway Company.

A meeting of the Republican State Committee is called for the 6th of April, when a time for holding the State Convention will be determined upon. George Thorn the leading member of the Philadelphia delegation in the House will in all probability, be nominated for Auditor General.

Yours, LOGAN.

DAUGHTERS OF MALTA.—The Buffalo Express tells of a singular drama that was performed in that city one night last week. At a certain boarding-house there were a number of gentlemen, with their wives, and a goodly number of "fast young men" stopping. The ladies, it appears, had a terrible desire to know something of the Sons of Malta, and having ascertained that an order called the Daughters of Malta existed, gave their masculine friends no peace until they had promised to procure them admittance. On the night in question when the husbands of the aforesaid ladies were absent, the young scamps informed them (the ladies) that all was ready, and that they had been especially deputized to initiate them into the ancient mysteries of the order of the Daughters of Malta. An old copy of Kirk's Exposition of Oddfellowship had been procured, altered somewhat to suit the occasion, and each of the actors in the scene had duly studied and committed his part. The room was prepared, the candidates introduced, and the whole ceremony conducted with a gravity becoming the occasion. It is said that the ladies were delighted with the ceremony, but that some of their husbands were disposed to get mad over it. On ascertaining, however, that the whole affair was conducted with the strictest propriety, they concluded to forgive the actors of the hoax, but insist that none of the higher degrees shall be conferred without their knowledge and consent first has been obtained.

☞ The Legislature of New Jersey on Thursday elected John C. Ten Eyck, republican, United States Senator from that State, to succeed William Wright. Mr. Ten Eyck is about forty-six years of age, residing at Mount Holly, Burlington county, is a lawyer, and ranks high in his profession.

WHAT THE PRESS SAY.—"COSTAR'S" Exterminators are invaluable remedies for clearing houses of all sorts of vermin. With all confidence we recommend them.—N. Y. Daily State Register.

"COSTAR'S" remedies for all domestic pests, such as Rats, Roaches, Bed-Bugs, Ants, Fleas, &c. are invaluable; we can speak from actual knowledge of their merits. Druggists and Dealers should send their orders early, if they would secure a trade in them.—New York Journal.

"I shall write something about your Exterminators, as I can do so with propriety. They are selling rapidly here and destroying all vermin.—Ed. "Banner," Fayette, Mo.

"DEATH TO ALL VERMIN."

As Spring approaches,
Ants and Roaches,
From their holes come out,
And Mice and Rats,
In spite of Cats,
Gaily skip about.
Bed-Bugs bite
You, in the night,
As on the bed you slumber,
While insects crawl
Thro' chamber and hall,
In squads without number.

IT IS TRULY WONDERFUL WITH WHAT CERTAINTY, Rats, Roaches, Mice, Moles, Ground Mice, Bed-bugs, Ants, Moths, Mosquitoes, Fleas, Insects on Animals, in short every species of Vermin, are utterly destroyed and exterminated by

"Costar's" Rat, Roach, &c. Exterminator,
"Costar's" Bed-Bug Exterminator,
"Costar's" Electric Powder, for Insects.

Supplied direct, by mail, to any address in the United States, as follows:
On receipt of $1,00, a box of the Rat, Roach, &c. Ext.;
On receipt of $2,00, a box each of the Rat, Roach, &c. Ext., and Electric Powder, (sent postage paid,) sufficient to destroy the vermin on any premises.
Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures Costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.

☞ One dose of two teaspoonsful will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

☞ Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

☞ One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhœa in its worst forms, while Summer and Bowel complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by WORMS in children: there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it never fails.

A few bottles cures Dropsy by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR

IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival. volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Phila.

Coshocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be. I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly.

S. T. STOCKMAN.

Wayland, Mass., Feb. 5, 1857.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

LOCAL ITEMS.

ffice Removal.—This day one week we ect to move our press and fixtures into a n fitted up for us in Keystone Hall. This l be the third removal in a little over the same ber of years, and might augur that we were tenants; but this would be incorrect, as we e always paid our rent (some how or other) d "pulled up stakes" of our own accord.— h removal has been to a building better ted to our purpose, and we think we have w obtained one from which we will not soon ove, as it will suit us to a T., and will be ed up in a style worth paying us a visit to Those who owe us anything on subscrip- advertising or job work, will be admitted . Those "who wish anything in our line," the merchants say, will be admitted at the e price, and will find us ready and willing to mmodate them in the most satisfactory nner.

he Lecture.—We are pleased to be able to nounce that the Trustees of the Methodist urch have granted the Lecture Committee, of e Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading om Association, the use of their church on e evening of the 31st March, (Thursday even- g next,) for the lecture to be delivered before e Association by Louis W. Hall, Esq. We ped when we made mention of the lecture st week, that such an arrangement might be fected, feeling sure that the Library Room ould prove insufficient to contain the audience hich would likely be convened, and that the fficulty of gaining access to it would deter any persons, and especially the ladies, from tending. But now that a convenient and suit- le room has been secured, we urge our citi- ens to turn out to the lecture, assuring them at they will be well rewarded for their atten- nce. We have perfect confidence in Mr. Hall's ility to do justice to his subject, which, by e way, is one of interest to every person.— ose who have heard Mr. H. lecture need not e urged to attend the coming entertainment, they will esteem it a privilege to hear him gain. To those who have not heard him we ould say go to the lecture and learn that we ave those in our midst who are as capable of nteresting and instructing us as many of the ore famed lecturers of the cities. Another onsideration should induce our citizens to turn ut on this occasion and that is, that it will en- urage the Lecture Committee to procure lec- urers from time to time, as is now their inten- on. We should be extremely mortified were ome of the popular lecturers, who have inti- mated that they would visit us, greeted with empty seats, and it would be equally mortifying to find one of our own home lecturers treated s disrespectfully.

On Adjectives.—A very smart person, whose letter is post marked at Philadelphia, clips an article, on the indiscriminate use of adjectives, from the first page of our paper of last week, and appends to it our notice of the "boot-jack" presentation, which, by the way, contained quite a number of adjectives, but no more than we were aware of, or served our purpose. Had this very smart, exceedingly sharp, and excessively modest individual—so modest that he could not attach his signature to the intended reproof; lest it should cause us to feel ourselves beneath him —been acquainted with all the circumstances connected with the presentation, we opine he would not have made himself so officious, or spent three cents (which no doubt grieved him,) to impart such a weight of information to us mountaineers. When he learns the circumstances referred to, he will no doubt feel like the little boy we've heard about. A burnt child, it is said, dreads the fire, but if the very smart individual alluded to has not had his fingers sufficiently scorched in this effort to enlighten the Local Reporter of the Tribune, he can "pitch into" us or somebody else, at his earliest convenience.

The New Sleeping Cars.—The new sleeping cars lately placed upon the Pennsylvania Rail Road are models of beauty and comfort. The outside of the cars are finished in a workmanlike manner and the internal arrangements are dressed up in a style of elegance seldom to be seen. The apartments in each car are entirely separate from each other, being divided by a partition and provided with a door which can be shut and locked by the occupants of the apartments, thereby rendering them secure from any intrusion or annoyance from other passengers, or persons walking through the cars, and enabling them to obtain that rest which those who ride in other passenger cars so much desire but can not find. The small advance of 50 cents on the price of a ticket between this and Philadelphia is nothing in comparison to the conveniences thus obtained. Since these cars have been placed upon the Road, we have been informed that the number applying for apartments therein, at either end of the Road, would be sufficient to fill two cars of the same kind with each train.

St. Patrick's Day.—Thursday last was St. Patrick's Day, but contrary to the usual custom, the weather clerk favored us with a fine day. The advent of the natal, day of this ancient Saint has generally been marked with storms of hail, sleet and rain, but on this occasion the anger of the elements was stayed until after nightfall, affording those who make it a holiday, an opportunity of enjoying themselves as they liked. We observed no demonstration of any kind in this place, but understand that the day was appropriately celebrated in Hollidaysburg by a parade, in which one of the military companies of that place took part. On the morning of the day named, an effigig was found suspended from a pole fastened on the roof of the old Union School House. The act reflects no credit upon those who thus attempted to wound the feelings of the followers of St. Patrick, and our Catholic people showed their good sense by taking no notice of it.

Error.—The date of the sale of property at the Company's Warehouse should have read April fourteenth, and not fourth, as printed last week. It will be found correct in this week's paper.

Resignation and Removal.—We are indeed sorry to chronicle the fact that our esteemed citizen, Thos. Burchincil, Esq., who, for the past eight or ten years, has occupied the position of Master Builder on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, has resigned his situation and removed with his family to Hollidaysburg. Mr. B. was one of the first settlers in this place, and all the buildings of the Company here, and along the line of the Road, many of which are models of architecture and the admiration of all who see them, were erected under his immediate supervision. By his resignation the Company loses the services of one of the best architects in the country. His removal from our town is much regretted by all, inasmuch as he was one of our most public-spirited citizens, intimately connected with all enterprises, public and private, which tended to advance the interests of the town or its citizens, and thoroughly acquainted with the organization and workings of our common Schools, in which he took great interest.—We wish him prosperity in his new location, hoping he may find it pleasant, and have as many and as warm friends as he leaves behind.

Funny Incident.—A few days ago, at dinner at the table of one of the hotels in this place, amongst other good things for the guests, was a large and exceedingly nice rock fish. A gentleman who boards at the Hotel coming in rather late, was rushed up to, immediately on taking his seat at the table, by one of the waiters —a new hand at the bellows—and the following colloquy took place:

Waiter—"What will you have sir, beef, veal, ham, or fish?"

Boarder—"What kind of fish is it?"

Waiter—(Looking non-plussed, and occasionally scratching his head and eyeing the boarder most cautiously,) "He's an eel, sir, but he's all done—they have eat him up."

This was followed by a roar of laughter, during which the waiter "vamosed," satisfied that the boarders were a queer sort of persons, and withal very ignorant of the kind of fish they were eating.

Rather Dangerous Amusement.—On Tuesday afternoon last, a couple of boys living in North Ward, aged 13 and 7 years respectively, indulged in what we would style a game of "guillotine," which well nigh proved fatal to the younger, who assumed the character of victim. It appears that the elder boy placed the younger with his neck upon a chopping-block, and taking up an axe which lay close by, acted the part of executioner. Fortunately, however, the victim struggled a little and succeeded in removing his neck from the block, but the descending axe caught two of his fingers, cutting one finger entirely off and almost severing the other. Dr. Christy was immediately called in and dressed the little fellow's wounds. We think this experiment, which he may be thankful was no more serious, will deter him from assuming the same character in the "guillotine" game hereafter.

Horse Insurance Company.—We notice that a Company has been formed in York county, called the "Farmers' Mutual Horse Thief Detecting and Insurance Company." It is established by some of the most wealthy farmers of York county, for the better security of horses against thieves, with a capital of $330,000 00, and insure on the following terms:—3 horses for 5 years $3, and 25 cents for each additional horse. Each horse insured is branded by the agent with the Company's mark, letter C. In case a horse thus marked and insured is stolen, the Company is bound to search out the horse and return him to the owner, or pay his full value in cash, within sixty days from the time he was stolen. We think it would be advisable for our farmers in this section to insure their horses in this Company.

The Golden Fisheries.—A few months ago nine gentlemen "camped out," and secured six hundred and forty-seven trout. Pretty good fishing that for the Green Mountain brooks, we admit; but other brooks can produce, at one haul, 50,000. They are the real silver and gold trout at that. One gentleman, the other day, caught, with a silver hook of but ten dollars, that whole amount of silver trout. Twenty and forty thousand are common hauls, with smaller hooks or nets. The mode is simply to send $10. $5, or $2½, to Augusta, Ga., or Wilmington, Delaware, to the address of Wood, Eddy & Co., and you will receive a ticket which will entitle you to a dip into their golden brook, which will insure you a chance for a big haul, from $50,-000 to its proportions. They are the legalized lottery operators of the United States.

Shove off your Old Quarters.—On Friday last, the Bank in this place, and most of the business men, "shut down," as the saying is, on the old spanish quarters, receiving them only at the reduced price of 20 cents. We have long desired to see this kind of coin pass out of use in this country, and although we do not wish those who hold any of it to part with it at a sacrifice, we hope they will shove it off into a locality where it is still received at full value, and from thence let it be worked to the mint, where it will remain until manufactured into American Coin.

New Cabinet Ware-Room.—Our old friend, Peter Reed, has leased the building heretofore occupied by Esquire Cherry, on Virginia street, and placed therein an assortment of chairs and bedsteads. His stock is light at present, but he intends adding to it, in a short time, a full assortment of household furniture, such as tables, bureaus, &c. The stock on hand is of a good quality and he sells at reasonable prices. He will continue to manufacture such articles as may be ordered, at his old stand, in East Altoona. Give him a call and examine the furniture.

Rev. Mullen's Lecture.—As previously announced through our columns and by posters, Rev. T. Mullen lectured in the Catholic Church in this place, on Friday evening last. His subject was "The Pope as Spiritual Chief and Temporal Ruler," and he did it full justice, convincing those who had the pleasure of hearing him that he is a master scholar. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was not large, but nevertheless very respectable.

Accident.—On Thursday last, Michael Tracy, Conductor on one of the Through Freight Trains on the Pennsylvania Rail Road, met with an accident at Mapleton Station, which will most likely cripple him for life. It appears that he attempted to get upon the cow-catcher in front of the locomotive while it was in motion, and in doing so his foot slipped off the lower bar and was caught by the first wheel of the front truck, which passed over it from heel to toe, crushing it in a shocking manner. He was taken to Huntingdon immediately, where his foot was dressed by Dr. McCulloch. In the evening he was brought to this place on the Mail Train and taken to his home, where he is now attended by Dr. Christy. Mr. Tracy is now lying in a critical situation, his system being much prostrated, but his physician still entertains hopes that he can save his foot, and that amputation will not be necessary.

Try Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.—The coughing season will soon begin, and with it the deep seated coughs and colds which lay the foundation of permanent and oftentimes fatal lung diseases. The true course to pursue for any one afflicted with a cough or cold is to seek a remedy in the early stage of these diseases; for the reason, that they are much more easily cured in the beginning than after they have seized some vital part of the constitution. The remedy that is most sure to give immediate relief is Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Cough Syrup, a medicine prepared by him with great care, and with a certain evidence that it will save hundreds of persons from falling into a permanent lung difficulty if applied to in time. You can buy it in bottles, at fifty cents and one dollar, at G. W. Kessler's, Altoona.

Sunday School Association.—According to appointment, a number of the officers and teachers of the different Sunday Schools in this place, met in the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening of last week, to take the initiatory steps toward forming a Sunday School Association. The formation of the Association was agreed upon, and the evening of the second Friday of April appointed as the time and the Presbyterian Church as the place, for holding the second meeting for the purpose of electing officers for the Association.

Hotel Changes.—The Red Lion Hotel, in this place, is now under the control of our good natured German neighbor, John Schweigert, Mr. Herrick having retired. Under the management of the gentlemen named, the Hotel has been quite popular, and while John remains, it will retain its reputation. We wish the retiring partner success in whatever business he may engage.

Samuel Hileman, of the Leamersville Hotel, will take charge of White Hall Hotel on the first day of April.

A Name.—As quite a number of persons intend moving into the "Kettle" this spring and forming a settlement there, of course they must have a name for the colony. The sobriquet of "Kemp Mills" has been suggested. We expect that a post office bearing that name will soon be established.

School Examination.—An examination of the public schools of this place, by the County Superintendent, is now in progress. We have not had time to attend, but learn that the scholars acquit themselves well and reflect credit upon their teachers.

Drowned.—We learn from the Standard of last week that a little son of Levi Shearer, of East Freedom, was drowned on Sunday week. He was playing with his brother in a tan yard, and accidently fell into one of the vats and was drowned.

County Commissioner Appointed.—Jacob Barnhart, Esq., of Greenfield township has been appointed County Commissioner, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of David Confer, Esq.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Hollidaysburg, March 22, 1859.

Messrs. Editors:—The Sabbath Schools connected with the various Protestant Churches of this place, met according to previous arrangement in the Baptist Church, on Monday evening, March 14th, to spend an hour or two in devotional exercises. Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather, the church was filled almost to overflowing. The exercises were opened by the singing of a hymn in concert and reading of a portion of Scripture, which was followed by prayers, singing of hymns by each of the Schools, interspersed by brief remarks by Rev's Taylor, Junkin and Dosh, Messrs. Kemp, Smith and Martin. Rev. Taylor, conducted the exercises of the evening, assisted by Rev. Dr. Junkin and Rev. Dosh. There appears to be a union of all hearts for the advancement and success of Sabbath Schools in this place May we not hope that these meetings may prove a great blessing to the Schools? The next monthly meeting of the Concert will be held in the Methodist Church.

Thursday last, being the anniversary of the birth of St. Patrick, the Patron Saint of Ireland, was duly celebrated in this place, by our Hibernian friends. The principal demonstration consisted in a parade of the "Emmet Guards." They made their appearance about 10 o'clock A. M., and marched through a few of our streets until 11 o'clock, when they attended service in the Catholic Church. A short time after dinner they again made their appearance and paraded through different portions of the town. This company is one, which has recently been organized and has not yet received its arms. They numbered between 30 and 40 members and are a fine looking company.—Their appearance made the town very lively during the day, and all were no doubt pleased with their manoeuvres.

The officers and teachers of the Sabbath Schools of Hollidaysburg and Gaysport, met according to adjournment, on Friday evening, 18th inst., in the Baptist Church, for the purpose of forming a Sabbath School Association, to consist of the Officers and Teachers of the Schools in this place and Gaysport. The object of the Association is to promote the advancement of Sabbath Schools, as was recommended by the National Sabbath School Convention, held in Philadelphia, in February last. The meeting was called to order by appointing Mr. John Penn Jones, President, and Mr. Asbury Derlan, Secretary. A constitution was adopted and signed, after which the members proceeded to the election of Officers, for the term of one year, which resulted as follows:—President, Alex. M. Lloyd; Vice Presidents, David Ramey, John R. McFarlane, John A. Crawford, John Berry and Thos. W. Herd; Secretary, Edward H. Gardner; Treasurer, John Lingafelt. The President elect, then took the chair, making a few brief remarks, asking the assistance of the members in enabling him to carry out the object of the Association. A few brief remarks were then made by Messrs. John Brotherline and John Penn Jones, and the meeting closed with singing the Doxology and benediction by Rev. Dosh. The next meeting of the Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church, on the third Friday evening in April. May the effort thus being put forth for the advancement of the Sabbath Schools, receive the hearty cooperation of all Christians, and finally be the means of extending the glorious Kingdom of the "Prince of Peace."

The weekly meeting of the Washingtonian Society was held at the Court House on Saturday evening last. The attendance was not as large as it had been on former occasions, owing no doubt to the inclemency of the weather on the evening in question. The speakers were Maj. Leet, Judge Caldwell and B. H. Geary.—These meetings we are sorry to say, appear to be losing their interest. When they were first organized the room was thronged with our citizens all anxious to lend a helping hand in the effort to banish the hideous monster, Intemperance, from our midst, but now, they have almost forsaken the cause and absent themselves from the meetings. We trust, however, that when the pleasant weather has come, that our people will again take a firm hold and aid the members of the Society to push on the Temperance Ball, and our town at length be free from the slavish reign of Intemperance.

On Saturday night last, the working of the Chimney Rock Furnance was unexpectedly brought to a close. The stoppage was, we believe, caused by the iron breaking through the back tuyer iron and forcing its way into the hot blast pipes, thus checking the blast and stopping the progress of the Furnace. This accident will probably delay the further working of the Furnace, at least, until Saturday next or longer. It will also be a loss to the proprietors of probably in the neighborhood of $1,000.

Within the past six months, Mr. Harvey Stewart, of Frankstown township, has had the misfortune to lose four or five valuable horses—two of them having died last week. He did not until last week entertain cause of their death, when his suspicions were aroused that they were poisoned. His suspicions were directed to a young man, Otto Harland, who had formerly been in his employ. Accordingly he procured a warrant for his arrest, and placed it in the hands of Constable Bowers, who, on Sabbath last, proceeded to the residence of Harland, and brought him to town, and lodged him in jail to await further investigations. This loss falls very heavily upon Mr. Stewart amounting to about $700.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

This invaluable medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and delicate diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess and removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, price one dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females during the first three months of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or anything hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.

—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time. J. H. HAHN,

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD

announce that they have removed to their new MODEL STORE, corner of Annie and Virginia Streets, and are now opening the largest and nicest Stock of

DRY GOODS,

Boots & Shoes, Carpets, Notions, &c.,

Ever exhibited in this town. Having turned our attention entirely to the above named Goods, we will be enabled to keep a better stock of the Goods mentioned than those who keep so many varieties; and as we will not be compelled to sell Dry Goods, &c., at a high profit to make up for losses on other goods, we hope to be able to dispose of them at prices that will astonish the natives.

FOR THE LADIES,

We have Prints, Delaines, Ginghams, Cashmere, and all-wool Plaids; Debeges, Coburgs, Alpacas, French Merinos, Wool Delaines, Silk Foulards, Poil Dechevres, Satin Striped Poplins, Black and Fancy Silks, Shawls in great variety; also, Hosiery and Gloves of all kinds, White Goods, &c.

OUR STOCK OF CARPETS is large and very cheap—wool filling as low as 37½ cents. Our Stock of DOMESTICS we think cannot be beat in quantity, quality or price. Persons who wish to get the most for their money, will do well to give us a call and examine our stock and prices, and we hope to be able to convince them that the MODEL is the place to buy goods. A CARD.—THE UNDERSIGNED, the Founder and Publisher of VAN COURT'S COUNTERFEIT DETECTOR, desirous of retiring from this branch of business, has merged that old established work in the popular BANK NOTE REPORTER of IMLAY & BICKNELL. Having published Van Court's Detector since 1839, the undersigned reluctantly parts with his old friends and subscribers; but this reluctance is lessened by the conviction, that in IMLAY & BICKNELL'S BANK NOTE REPORTER they will receive a work that matches the times. J. VAN COURT.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

For Inflammatory Diseases only.

NEW MEDICAL SALT! NEW MEDICAL SALT!

IT IS NOT A CURE-ALL.

For Inflammatory Diseases Only!

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has control over but one ill, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: SUBDUES INFLAMMATORY DISEASE, whatever be its form or locality, whether in the head, throat, abdomen, extremities or skin.

The peculiar excellence of the NEW MEDICAL SALT is, that without the useless loss of blood and strength, it effectually cures INFLAMMATORY DISEASES (no other) by producing an equilibrium of all the fluids in the body, the want of which is the sole cause of inflammation.

INVALIDS, TAKE NOTICE!! The following forms which the unbalanced fluids assume, and many not here mentioned, that have more or less fever, are as easily subdued by the NEW MEDICAL SALT, as fire is extinguished by water, to wit: Brain Fever, Headache, Rush of Blood to the Head and Heart, Fits, Inflamed Eyes, Ears and Nose, Canker, Neuralgia, Spinal Affections, Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Inflamed Lungs and Liver, Heartburn, Coughs, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Rheumatism, Gout, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all Itching and other cutaneous eruptions.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT exerts, like the vaccine matter, an extraordinary influence on the veins and arteries, resulting in a gradual decline of inflammation as indicated by the pulse, which soon resumes its natural state, as the heat, pain and fever disappear.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the fluids, by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions. Description circulars may be obtained from any Druggist who has this valuable medicine for sale.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhoea, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other abuses of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or Treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 S. Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER,

GREAT DISCOVERY OF THE AGE

IMPORTANT TO

TOBACCO CHEWERS.

DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES, the great Substitute for Tobacco.

It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain norcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will bear testimony—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

Are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved completely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the entire system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches of Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned to whom all orders should be addressed.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT!

McCORMICK'S NEW GOODS HAVE ARRIVED AND ARE NOW BEING OPENED FOR INSPECTION AND SALE.

"Halloo, neighbor, I'm here on the ground again. Perhaps you recollect when I, last year, asked you to hold my horse a moment and tell me where the CHEAP STORE was. But it is different now. It reminds me a little of the campaign of 1840, when Gen. Harrison was elected President. You have only to go with the crowd and you will have no difficulty in finding McCORMICK'S STORE. From the excitement down the valley, and the quantity of goods I see carried away, they must be selling off very rapidly and very cheap."

"You are right, my friend; I would say to you, go ahead and your anticipations will be fully realized. He has a very large and well selected assortment of Goods. He'll sell you a dress for fifty cents and give the trimming into the bargain, I'm told, and all other goods in proportion."

"Good bye, neighbor, that's where I am going to buy my goods."

"That's right, and so should everybody who need DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, CEDARWARE, STONEWARE, Hats and Caps, very cheap Bonnets, Misses Hats, &c., Ladies' Gaiters, Shoes and Slippers, with Misses, Boys and Men's Boots and Shoes, and every other article kept in a first class country store, can be had cheap for cash at McCormick's.

All articles of country produce taken in exchange for goods. R. H. McCORMICK.

ANOTHER REDUCTION IN PRICE

at McCormick's Store.

Having adopted the CASH SYSTEM, (or at least credit will not be given to any other than those who are willing and can give satisfactory reference and assurance of prompt monthly payment,) and desiring to make it the interest of all to patronize our store, we have made a very great reduction in the prices of all descriptions of goods, and will give our entire time and attention to keeping up an assortment to suit the wants of our customers, such as DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, CEDARWARE, STONEWARE, BOOTS & SHOES, Gaiters, Slippers, Hats and Caps, Dried Fruit, etc., all of which will be sold as cheap as the cheapest.

All articles of produce taken in exchange for goods at their highest market price.

Thankful for past favors, we hope to share the patronage of those who are in want of goods. [March 25-tf.

PATENT KEROSENE OR CARBON

OIL LAMPS!

Unrivaled in Beauty, Simplicity Safety or Economy.

Every person desiring to obtain the very best and cheapest portable light within their reach, should call at the store of the undersigned and examine these Lamps before purchasing elsewhere, and we pledge ourselves to demonstrate

1st. That NO ACCIDENT can occur by explosion.

2d. That they emit no offensive odor while burning.

3d. That they are very easily trimmed.

4th. That they are easily regulated to give more or less light.

5th. That they burn entirely free from smoke.

6th. That the light is at least 50 per cent. cheaper than any other light now in common use.

These lamps are admirably adapted for the use of Students, Mechanics, Seamstresses, Factories, Halls Churches, Stores, Hotels, and are highly recommended for family use.

The burner of the Carbon Oil Lamp can be attached to old side, hanging and table fluid and oil lamps, at a small expense, and will answer every purpose of a new lamp.

We guarantee perfect satisfaction in all cases.

LOGAN HOTEL.—THE UNDERSIGNED

respectfully informs the citizens of Blair county and others, that he has opened up the LOGAN HOUSE, formerly kept by Sheriff Rees, at the west end of Hollidaysburg, for the reception of strangers and travellers.—Everything connected with the house has been refitted the now with the choicest furniture, &c., &c.

The house is large and commodious, and well calculated for convenience and comfort.

His TABLE will be furnished with the very best the market can afford, and no pains or trouble will be spared to render those who may choose to favor him with their patronage comfortable and happy during their stay with him.

His STABLING is ample, and an obliging and careful hostler will always be in attendance!

☞ The Williamsburg stage, which makes daily trips between this place and Williamsburg, stops at the Logan Hotel.

Dec. 17, 1857,—tf.] JOHN KEIFFER.

THE GREAT QUESTION WHICH

now agitates the mind of every person is, where can I get the best article for my money? In regard to other matters, the subscriber would not attempt to direct, but if you want anything in the line of he invites an examination of his stock and work.

BOOTS OR SHOES

He keeps constantly on hand an assortment of Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, Slippers, &c., which he offers at fair prices.

He will give special attention to custom work, all of which will be warranted to give satisfaction. None but the best workmen are employed.

Remember my shop is on Main street, next door to Kerr's old stand, now W. O'Neil's.

September 3, '57-tf] JOHN H. ROBERTS.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUBSCRIBER

would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable manner, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners. His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his bar filled with liquors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place, and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting to receive a share of public patronage, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.

Altoona, May 27, 1858.–1y] JOHN BOWMAN.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—THE UNDERSIGNED

has now on hand and will sell cheap at his store in the Masonic Temple, a large and complete assortment of BOOTS AND SHOES, ready made, or made to order, Overshoes, Ladies' Sandals, Gum Shoes, Cork Soles, and everything in his line of business, of the best quality and on the most reasonable terms. All custom work warranted.
